

Programme #CIP16

Friday 1st of July 2016 09:30 – 18:00

Venue: Antwerp Management School
Sint-Jacobsmarkt 9-13, Antwerp (2000) Belgium

Programme is subject to possible last minute changes

09:30	Registration and welcome coffee/tea	at the Foyer
10:00	Welcome and introduction of the day	at KS 203 Prof. Dr. Bart Cambré Associate Dean Research – Antwerp Management School (Belgium)
10:20	Keynote: Effective communication during the Brussels airport & subway attacks and other elevated terrorist threats in Belgium	Peter Mertens Coordinator and spokesman – Federal Crisis Center (Belgium)
11:00	Keynote: Coordinated crisis communication: lessons learned in Swedish governments, agencies and society	Stina Wessling Wessling Kommunikation AB (Sweden)
11:40	Comfort break	Foyer
12:00	The "Bubble of Knowledge" project: a closer look Discussion and member mapping by the "BoK" team	KS 203 Jan Vervoort – David Matthys – Tim Van Achte
13:00	Lunch	Foyer
During the lunch we want to provide you with the possibility to learn more about CIP Institute and our various activities. Join us for these short sessions:
	L1: Annual Report 2015-2016 Luc Claessens (BE) Adco member	L2: Overview of all current Institute Activities Stijn Pieters (BE) Board & Exco member	L3: Strategic Partnerships & Sponsorships Ute Bock (Switzerland) Adco member	L4: The Future of our Institute Hugo Marynissen (BE) Board member

For more information on keynotes and speakers, please refer to <http://blog.cipinstitute.org>

14:00	Introduction of workshops		CIP-representatives guide attendees to rooms
	Track A at KS 204 Civilian Participation Introduction: Peter Mertens	Track B at KS 103 Chaos, Complexity, Resilience Introduction: Dr. Tim Summers	Track C at KS 104 Perception of Risk Introduction: Stina Wessling
14:15	A1: Spontaneous volunteers and crisis communication during a disaster. How to deal with citizen participation initiatives. Research performed at University of Antwerp & Campus Vesta.  Yves Stevens Province of Antwerp (BE) 	B1: What might we do differently in a world where uncertainty and non-predictability are ever present and chaos is normal? An ongoing research project by the CIP Institute.  Dr. Mike Lauder Alto42 Ltd. (UK) Dr. Hugo Marynissen Antwerp Management School (BE) 	C1: Current and emerging challenges in risk and crisis perception for the nuclear sector.  Dr. Wim Uyttenhove The Binding Energy (BE)
15:05	This is a continuous track (with a small break)		Possibility to switch between track B & C
15:10	A2: Flipping the response: What can self-organizing communities do for you during a crisis? Findings from COBACORE funded by the EU.  Kenny Meesters Delft University of Technology (NL) 	B2: Drawing the line: Cross-boundary coordination processes in emergency management.  Dr. Jeroen Wolbers VU University Amsterdam (NL) Luc Wassenberg Vigiles (NL) 	C2: Better risk communication about fires involving hazardous materials. Risk perception and the mental models approach. Research findings.  Dr. Frans Greven Public Health Services, Groningen (NL)
16:00	Comfort break		Foyer
16:30	Keynote: Hacker, Hoaxer, Whistleblower, Spy. Critical advice for protecting your organization from hackers stealing your data, turning it into a hostage situation and a media circus		KS 203  Dr. Timothy Summers Executive Advisor and Strategist – Summers & Company (US)
17:15	"Couch session" with the keynote speakers covering various topics captured during the day
17:45	Closing arguments & next steps		 Juan Manuel Dominguez SD Group (Spain) Dr. Hugo Marynissen Antwerp Management School (Belgium)
18:00	End of the conference
18:00	Drink and surprise act!		"Hof van Liere" at walking distance (Prinsstraat 13)
19:00	Dinner (facultatively)		Hof van Liere