

PROGRAMME

Managing Crisis Today - Insights on dealing with complexity

4th International CIP Conference | June 16, 2017 in Lisboa, Portugal

University of Lisbon – Faculdade de Psicologia
Alameda da Universidade 1649-013, Lisboa

#CIP17

09:00	Registration and welcome coffee
09:30	Welcome and introduction of the day		Hugo Marynissen President of CIP Institute
09:45	Welcome		University of Lisbon
10:00	Keynote 1: Radical connections: Rethinking cumulative radicalization from tree to rhizome.		 Christophe Busch Director General at Kazerne Dossin (Belgium)
10:45	Introduction of workshops wave 1
11:00	Comfort break
11:15	Track A Risk and communication in pharma and health related fields How can we better communicate risk by applying systems science to create a more integrated system for medicines? Dr. Brian Edwards MD MRCP, Pharmacovigilance & Drug Safety, UK.	Track B Policy development and its effects on risk and safety Environmental fast response teams - identifying problems and challenges. Scope, competence, and interdependencies of environmental fast response teams. Dalila Antunes, Factor Social, PT	Track C Normal Chaos paradigm, a shift in how we see our world Normal Chaos: a catalytic framework for theorizing crisis & the differences between the 'Perfect World' and the 'Normal Chaos' paradigm. An illustration based on a real case in firefighting. Dr. Mike Lauder, Alto42 Ltd., UK & Dr. Hugo Marynissen, Antwerp Management School, BE.
12:45	Lunch including General Assembly
13:30	"Bubble of Knowledge" project Discussion and member mapping by the BoK team		BoK Team CIP Institute

(Continues)

PROGRAMME

Managing Crisis Today - Insights on dealing with complexity

4th International CIP Conference | June 16, 2017 in Lisboa, Portugal

University of Lisbon – Faculdade de Psicologia
Alameda da Universidade 1649-013, Lisboa

#CIP17

14:15	Introduction of workshops wave 2
14:30	Track A Risk and communication in pharma and health related fields White heroin warning campaign Amsterdam - targeting a hard to reach international audience. Tom Compaijen, Compaijen C&C, NL.	Track B Policy development and its effects on risk and safety A debate on Seveso Directive – a national or European safety issue? Isabel Abreu dos Santos, Gê, environmental, risk communication and management Lda, PT.	Track C Normal Chaos paradigm, a shift in how we see our world What fire departments can learn from ants. Pieter Maes, Firefighter – EMT – Instructor Brussels Fire Department, BE
15:45	Coffee break
16:00	Keynote 2: Evidence based policy making in Europe - Consequences of Brexit Prof. Ragnar Löfstedt Prof. Risk Management at King's College London, Director of King's Centre for Risk Management (UK)
16:45	Closing arguments & next steps		Juan Manuel Dominguez Chief Executive CIP Institute
17:15	End of the conference
19:00	Dinner (facultative)

For updated information on content, keynotes and speakers, please refer to

<http://cipinstitute.org/event2017/>

Follow us: @cipinst